Description of Case

39. In this case the indictment charges all the defendants with conspiracy to distribute narcotics that were smuggled into the United States through Port Everglades and elsewhere in South Florida. The defendants Clarence Lark and Larry Crenshaw are charged with conspiring to operate Teamsters Local 390 as a Racketeering Enterprise and with money laundering. The defendant John Gallo is also charged with money laundering. Do you have any views about these general charges that may affect your ability to be a juror on this type of case?
